Maximiliano Cristiani

Maxi started tango in 1998 and has studied with the great masters of Tango salon and Tango stage. His biggest influence is Osvaldo Zotto. He was one of the first generation of young professionals to study with the famous dancers like Geraldo Portalea, Carlito Perez and Roza, Pupy Castello, Gloria and Eduardo, Parejita and Chino Perico and others. He has performed in tango shows in Buenos Aires such as Tango Palace, Café Tortoni, Fascination of Tango and Corporations Tango. He created his own tango show called 'Tango Essence'. He has taught at the Carlos Copello's tango school in addition to his own school 'Catullus' and toured Europe. His dancing emphasizes elegance and precision in technique.

Maxi won 1st place in the Tango Competition, Metropolitana 2012 and 2nd place in the Salon Competition in the World Tango Championship in 2012. In 2013, Maxi and Jesica took 1st place in the World Tango Championship.

Jesica Arfenoni

She has been dancing for tango companies "Tango Trip to Feeling" and "Tango Mas Tango" and has been touring throughout Europe and Brazil for the past four years performing and teaching. She won 4th place in Tango and Milonga in the Metropolitana in 2010 and came in 6th place in the World Tango Championship in 2009. And in 2013 she and Maxi obtained 1st place in the World Tango Championship.

Maximiliano and Jesica highlight elegance, combining simplicity and yet complexity to the dance while emphasizing the original essence of Tango. They are currently touring festivals and academies all around the world in 12 different countries.
